

Lecture on Library Management System

→ Sun Education Desk

BALID Institute of Information Management (BIIM), Bangladesh Association of Librarians, Information Scientists and Documentalists (BALID) in collaboration with Southeast University (SEU) organized a lecture session on “RFID Technology Uses in Integrated Library Management System in Bangladesh: a practical experience” and “Automation of Libraries using Senayan Library Management System - SLiMS” held at Southeast University (SEU) Seminar Hall on 12 April 2014 at 4.00 pm. Prof. Dr. Anwar Hossain, Vice Chancellor of the Southeast University was present as chief guest and Prof. Dr. Md. Humayun Kabir Chowdhury, Pro-VC of the University was the special guest at the program. Dr. Mirza Md. Rezaul Islam, Chairman, BIIM & BALID presided over the program. Ms. Hazera Rahman, Head of Library of Southeast University delivered the welcome speech and she also conducted the program.

Dr. Md. Mostafizur Rahman, Librarian, North South University delivered a lecture on “RFID Technology Uses in Integrated Library Management System in Bangladesh: a practical experience” and Mr. A.K.M. Nurul Alam (Apu), Assistant Director, Bangladesh Bank Library shared his experiences with the session titled “Automation of Libraries using Senayan Library Management System - SLiMS”. BIIM, BALID organized the programme as a part of its regular series programme to keep Librarians, Information Scientists and Documentalists abreast with advance knowledge and skills.